

SOCIETY

Wedding at Mannington.
The wedding of Miss Bessie Craker, daughter of Mrs. Rose Craker, and Clinton Dancer last night in the M. E. Church and the reception that followed at the residence of the bride's mother were two very brilliant society events.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreen and amylax, the three white arches in front of the altar being draped in amylax and ferns while pendant from the arches were many white wedding bells. Tall palms stood at either side of the pulpit. Prior to the entrance of the bridal party Miss Flora Pendleton played a number of selections on the organ. The ushers were E. B. Koen, Winston Smith and Fred Beatty.

As Miss Craker and Mr. Dancer appeared in the entrance to the church Rev. Archibald stepped in front of the pulpit.

The bride's costume was a lace robe over white silk with a flowing veil. She carried bridal roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Lyda Beatty, Miss Olive Kirkland and Miss Arden Morgan. Miss Norma Craker acted as maid of honor and Mr. D. E. Hutton, of Barnesville, was best man.

Little Mildred Craker, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The maid of honor was gowned in lace over white silk, the gowns of the bridesmaids being: Miss Lyda Beatty, accordion plaited liberty silk; Miss Kirkland, white crepe de chine and Miss Arden Morgan cream lace over white silk. The bridesmaids carried bridal roses tied with mallow net.

After the ceremony in the church the reception at the bride's home was attended by hundreds who tendered the newly married man and wife hearty congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Dancer left on the lummer for New York. After making a tour of the eastern cities they will return to Mannington.—Mannington Record.

A Charming Reception.

The reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Edwin Reed at her home on Fairmont avenue, was charming in all its appointments. The honor guests of the occasion were Miss Eleanore Lee Moore, of Washington, D. C., and Miss William Moore Reed, of this city. The interior of the Reed home was elaborately decorated in holly, mistletoe and cut flowers. In the drawing room Christmas greens and white carnations were combined in the decorations, and red carnations were used in profusion in the dining room. Mrs. Reed, Miss Moore and Miss Reed received the guests in the drawing room, after which they were invited into the dining room where a delicious luncheon was served by Misses Eva Brand and Jeannette Bright. In the den, Miss Carolyn Bright presided at the punch bowl and served delicious punch to the guests. As the guests were leaving Miss Mary Abbott invited them into the pink room on the second floor where coffee was served. Mrs. J. E. Powell presided at the coffee urn and was assisted in serving by Misses Mary Fleming and Katharine Hough.

Miss Carl Powell presented each guest with a spray of mistletoe tied with a dainty bow of red ribbon. Owen's orchestra, stationed on the second floor, played throughout the afternoon.

Miss Malone's Dance.

Miss Blanche Malone entertained a large number of her friends last evening at a dance in the Manley Hotel ball room. Mrs. Malone and Miss Malone received the guests in the reception room and were assisted by Mrs. Preston Crowell and Mrs. S. P. Nuzum. Owen's orchestra furnished music for the dancing which was continued until a late hour.
